

County Is Being Hurt By Lack Of Land Plan

Adverse Effect On New Growing Industry; Can Remedy This March 16

Madison county is a quarter century behind in land planning and zoning of unincorporated areas and, unless public support is specifically forthcoming to correct this deficiency, the county not only will discourage new industry from coming in but also is apt to lose some of its existing industry that needs room for expansion, Alton May, chairman of the Board of Supervisors' committee on zoning and planning, told members and guests of the Madison County Citizens' Planning Committee last Monday evening at a meeting in Wood River.

"There are 20 counties in Illinois with land use and zoning committees, many much smaller than Madison county," he said, "and if we don't act immediately we stand to lose thousands of new jobs to these more progressive areas."

Organized labor has been strong advocate of land use planning, a member of May's committee pointed out, because it provides job security, and industry is equally articulate in favor of it as a means of long range expansion protection.

Units of government, such as school and park districts, also find land use zoning important in enabling them to keep abreast of future demands for these public services "to no small of the advantages to all citizens and governments from broadening the tax base with new industries," he added.

Need Public Support
While his committee has made substantial progress in the direction of land use and zoning, May said the program can be greatly expedited "if the public understands and supports it." He called on community organizations and the press to help.

Civic, labor, business and industrial groups can aid in disseminating information on the proposal, May said, and help assure county board approval by writing letters or sending delegations to the board's meeting March 16 in Edwardsville, where the matter will be brought up.

Reviewing the work of his committee to date, May said it already has aerial maps of Madison county "thanks to the recent assessment of the county for record purposes. By using these same maps, we save about $25,000."

There also has been $15,000 appropriated for a land use study "but it is not logical to spend this money unless a zoning survey can be made, too, at an estimated cost of $10,000. Any delay between the two studies runs the risk of making the land use information obsolete."

"For this reason, our committee has been reluctant to proceed until there is county board assurance of the additional $10,000. We hope this will be forthcoming March 16."

The land use study, May explained, would record on maps present usage of all unincorporated areas of Madison county, estimated at 400 square miles.

Two Deputies Fired After Local Officials Back Mudge

With near-unanimous support from the Madison County Board of Supervisors, Mayor Dick H. Mudge Jr. among Quad City Democratic committeemen Sheriff George Musso fired two local deputies Monday evening after failing in an effort to elicit support for Mudge's primary opponent.

A leading backer of Anthony W. Daly for the state's attorney nomination, Musso termed the discharge of Deputies Theodore Skoklo and Booker Walton as "in the interest of harmony" within his office.

He declined to comment further or to discuss a meeting here in which Madison and Venice Democratic leaders say they rejected his "ultimatum" that they support Mudge.

Confer At City Hall
The campaign for the April 12 election was discussed during a conference at the Madison city hall between Musso, Madison Mayor Stephen Maestas, Venice Mayor John E. Lee, Venice township Democratic Chairman Walter Simmons, Madison Police Chief Barney Fraundorf, former Sheriff James T. Callahan, Wood River township Supervisor Fred Grenzschach and an as yet unidentified Granite Cityman. The Granite Cityman did not take part in the appeal for Daly, local officials said.

While the sheriff would not discuss his comments here with the Press-Record, Mayors Maestas and Lee and Chief Fraundorf said he indicated an intention to have Daly nominated first making political offers to the local officials and then hinting of stern opposition to them.

The discharges taking place Monday were not directly mentioned in the discussion here.

Special Council Meeting Tonight On Sewer Grant

Granite City council members are to meet in a special session at 8 o'clock this evening for a unanimous action to save the city's $120,000 federal grant to plan a master sewer and drainage project.

In the absence of Mayor Davis, who is attending the National Fire Department Instruction Conference in Memphis, Tenn., the special session was called by City Atty. William Beatty because of the Saturday deadline for the city to enter into an agreement with the Chicago regional office of the Federal Housing & Home Finance Agency.

Beatty said he is expecting the mayor to return from Memphis for this evening's meeting.

Council approval is needed, Beatty explained, for the city to enter into an agreement with the federal agency. Under the terms, the grant is to be repaid when the city undertakes the project.

A copy of the agreement had been sent earlier to the city, but it was not received or was misplaced, and it was not until late last week the city became aware of the grant's deadline.

There was no regular council session for Monday night, the fifth Monday of the month.

Committee Studies Purchase Of DWI Testing Machine

A conference with Police Chief Raymond Willard and City Atty. William Beatty is planned by the Granite City council Police Committee members before a recommendation is made on the purchase of a chemical testing machine for intoxication.

Alderman Casmer Skubish, chairman of the committee, who was among a group visiting Madison Monday night at the city hall, said he was impressed with the operation of the $645 testing device, but the committee wants to learn the sentiments of the police chief and attorney before presenting the matter to the council.

The demonstration was staged by J. A. Renaldi of Chicago, who manufactures the "breathalyzer." He said that if a machine is purchased by Granite City, a training course for a maximum of 30 police officers will be conducted at an additional cost of $250. "Through the course, each trainee who qualifies becomes an expert on the machine and would be available to testify during court hearings," Renaldi said.

The police department, which averages eight to 10 arrests a month on traffic charges of driving while under the influence of liquor, has long pointed to the need for a testing device and during a recent traffic meeting, Police Magistrate Casmer said he would admit the evidence in his court.

Witnessing the demonstration were Aldermen Skubish, Steve Basarich and Frank Nemeth of the Police Committee; City Atty. Beatty; Police Chief Willard; and City Engineer J. A. Renaldi.

Building In GC Last Month Tops $423,000

18 New Homes Valued At $250,500; Commercial Projects, $128,850

New construction authorized in Granite City during February totaled nearly a half-million dollars with last minute permits issued on Monday for two commercial projects to cost a total of $100,000.

During the month, 55 permits with a value of $423,214 were issued, including 18 for dwellings valued at $250,500; eight for commercial projects costing $128,850; 14 for home remodeling and repair jobs valued at $18,375; 11 for garages and carports worth $9639; four for house trailers on vacant lots valued at $14,700; a church remodeling project costing $1000 and a miscellaneous permit, $150.

A $90,000 remodeling project for the former First Granite City National Bank building at Niedringhaus and Edison avenues was obtained Monday by State Loan and Savings Association, which is to move from its present location at 1304 Niedringhaus avenue.

Plans are for the windows to be lowered, interior remodeling, installation of an elevator to provide access to second floor offices and continued use of drive-up facilities.

The other commercial permit issued Monday went to Abe Hoy Jr. for a $10,000 laundrymat at 2101 Washington avenue with 36 washers and 12 dryers. The jobs were not started.

Six Leap Year Babies Born Here

233 Leap Year babies, including twin boys, were born Monday at St. Elizabeth Hospital and are destined to have their first birthday celebrations on Feb. 29, 1948.

The twins are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Boyd, 3013 Ramona drive, and have been transferred to the premature center in East St. Louis. They are Randy Leo, who weighed three pounds, four ounces, and Ricky Leo, three pounds, nine ounces. The father is employed at a local service station.

The first Leap Year baby was little Tara Rene Gray, seven pounds, 15 ounces, who was born at 4:08 a.m., the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hyman Gray, 619 Salter street, Venice. Gray is an employee of Reeves Concrete Co.

A boy, Jeffery Lynn, weighing in at eight pounds, 13 ounces, was born to Mr. and Mrs. William Courtney, Rural Route Three, Edwardsville. The father is employed at Laclede Steel Co.

Franklin Byrd Bosworth II arrived for Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bosworth II, of 104 Greener Homes, Madison. The father is a sheet metal worker; and the last of the Leap Year babies, a daughter for Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Forester, Rural Route One, Caseyville, arrived at 7:28 p.m. weighing six pounds, 12 ounces. Her name has not been selected. Forester works for Granite City Steel Co.

Clifford Hamilton, 19, is in critical condition at Barnes Hospital, St. Louis, where he was transferred Tuesday after receiving emergency treatment at St. Elizabeth Hospital here for a self-inflicted gunshot wound in the lower left ribs. The attending physician said a lung possibly was punctured.

Hamilton, an employee of Hyman-Mitchell Co., Madison, was found in his home at 1923 (rear) Fifth street, East Madison, by a friend, Robert Mansfield, 2040 Beckwith avenue, who had stopped by for a visit shortly after 2 p.m. Tuesday and heard a shot as he approached the house, according to the report by the sheriff's office. Hamilton's wife, Ruby, was visiting a sister in Elkville, Ill.

Mansfield called upon Hamilton's brother, Charles, who lives nearby, for assistance in taking the wounded man to the local hospital. While undergoing emergency treatment here, Hamilton told several persons, including his mother, Mrs. Charles Kelly, a hospital employee, that he had shot himself accidentally with a .22 caliber pistol.

While the sheriff's office has named the shooting a suicide attempt, Mrs. Kelly said she is certain it was an accident. "He had just swapped a shotgun for a pistol and probably didn't know much about it," the mother told the Press-Record. No fires were found in the house.

The sheriff's office was aided by state troopers in investigating the incident.

Area Digs Out From Winter's Worst Storm

Two-Day Period In GC Without An Accident

After a hectic February in which 33 accidents a day were reported in Granite City, a 48-hour and four-minute period without a traffic mishap was recorded from 12:31 p.m. Monday until 1:35 p.m. yesterday afternoon and evening, most of them caused by snow-packed, icy streets.

Police had estimated 79 accidents would occur in the city during February, but the actual total was 36. The prediction for March is in the process of being compiled.

The dry powdery snow began falling about midnight Tuesday, blanketing an earlier five-to-six-inch snow which had fallen last Tuesday and Saturday but not melted entirely. The latest snowfall continued unabated until early this morning, leaving many side roads impassable and making driving anywhere hazardous. No serious accidents were reported, however.

Quadrant City began digging themselves out this morning, and most were able to make their way to work, but at least one area was still snowbound at noon today.

Families Snowbound
About 35 families residing in the Bend road area in Nankook township, where the heaviest drifting of snow and Saturday had been, were still waiting for township road equipment to open up side roads.

Township Supervisor Harry Briggs said road equipment should reach the area by mid-afternoon. A resident of the area said none of the families were in immediate need of food and that no sickness had been reported.

Briggs said his equipment must clear nearly 60 miles of roads in the township, and has been at work on the job since early morning.

Residents along Bend road reported to be concerned mostly with reaching the places of employment. The drifts, some of them reportedly six feet deep, had prevented their travel this morning.

Schools Closed
All Quad City schools were reported closed today, together with public schools in Granite City and Venice. Granite City school officials said heavy snows and drifting in outlying areas made it impossible for buses to make their normal runs today, but that all schools plan to open again Friday.

St. Elizabeth, St. Joseph's and Sacred Heart parochial schools in Granite City, St. Mark's in Venice and St. Mary's in Madison all cancelled classes today. There will be no classes at St. Mark's tomorrow, and at the other four schools, if possible, classes will be held in public buildings.

George Papa, 29, of 905 Leavenworth, Madison, was driven west on the bridge when the car skidded in the railroad tracks. There he hit the bridge and the left front of his car and extensive damage to the left front, left side and rear end of both legs.

Police said DeGonia was driving north on the bridge when he was involved in a two-car collision occurring at 4:53 p.m. Monday on the McKinley Bridge. Both were treated at St. Elizabeth Hospital and were referred to physicians for additional treatment.

Mrs. Eva Bellinger, 51, of 211 Ohio avenue was struck by a chest injury and Malissa Evans, 56, of 2217 Bryan avenue, suffered a chest injury and abrasions to the lower part of both legs.

Preliminary Work To Begin On Housing For Elderly

The Granite City Housing Authority board at its meeting Tuesday night approved a preliminary $20,000 loan agreement from the Public Housing Administration's Chicago regional office to develop a housing project for the elderly.

With Board Chairman Walter Pfaff's signature added to the project, preliminary work will begin on the 100-unit, single-story housing project can begin.

The loan agreement is the first step in early work that must be completed within four months, according to federal law. The preliminary work will give an estimate for the project's cost. This includes preparing a tentative site, surveys and appraisal, architect's drawings and other work short of actual construction. At the present time the regional office is studying five possible sites and will soon make a tentative site approval.

Final site approval will be made after all the preliminary work is completed. "There are many details to be worked out in this development program after we get a tentative site approval," David Morgan, executive director, said. "Problems such as sewage, water, means to shopping areas, bus routes etc., have to be worked out before a final approval can be made on a site."

Injured On Bridge
Two women were injured in a two-car collision occurring at 4:53 p.m. Monday on the McKinley Bridge. Both were treated at St. Elizabeth Hospital and were referred to physicians for additional treatment.

Mrs. Eva Bellinger, 51, of 211 Ohio avenue was struck by a chest injury and Malissa Evans, 56, of 2217 Bryan avenue, suffered a chest injury and abrasions to the lower part of both legs.

The demonstrator said the machine is widely used in Chicago and is being considered for use by the state police force.

In Chicago, he said that of an average 700 DWI arrests a month, 350 motorists are released without charges as a result of the tests, and in the remaining cases in which charges are filed, the convictions average 96%.

The purpose of the "breathalyzer," he said, is to eliminate opinion in DWI arrests. "You must have the facts to provide evidence and this machine provides those facts. All that is needed is for a suspect to blow into the machine and the results are known in 3 to 5 minutes."

He explained the machine does not measure the volume of drink, but rather the percentage of alcohol in the blood stream. Renaldi pointed out a DWI legislature during a youth program at Springfield later this year.

The demonstration also was witnessed by two Granite City does not measure the volume of high school students, members of the YMCA youth legislature group, who plan to introduce a DWI legislature during a youth program at Springfield later this year.

Those not able to attend all may attend as many times as convenient. For further information patients may call their physician or contact the hospital, as no registration is necessary.

While taking the test is on a voluntary basis, Renaldi said past experiences has shown a difficulty in administering it, since in 50% of the instances a motorist is cleared.

Council Studying Downtown Parking Survey

Granite City council members are expected to discuss next Monday night a survey of downtown parking conditions, submitted recently by City Engineer David J. Johnston and the newly-formed Off-Street Parking Commission.

The engineer has recommended an overall reduction of parking meter time limits (now two hours) to one hour and down to 15 minutes in some areas to provide temporary relief. He also is asking the city to consider providing 75 to 125 additional parking spaces through lease or purchase of downtown lots to prepare for the future growth of the community.

The council's Downtown Traffic and Street Committee members are to meet this week to go over the survey with the Off-Street Parking commission—Leonard Fleishman, A. W. Morris III, Jack Reese and Anthony E. Michel. The city appropriated $2500 last year for parking meter funds for the survey.

The survey showed that in the business district, 204 vehicles were parked in excess of the present two-hour meter limit and the average time was four hours. If there had been a one-hour limit, 821 vehicles could have used the spaces instead of only 204, thus relieving the parking congestion.

Peak To Be Considered
In the metered area of the entire downtown area, the usage was only 52.6%, but in the center of the business district, the usage was 87.25%. The high percentage could be cut to a reasonable amount through the reduction of meter time, the engineer said, but he pointed out the city should consider the operation of metered parking lots to handle peak shopping hours and prepare for increases in population and number of vehicles.

He pointed out the opening of the new First Granite City National Bank and Granite City Steel Co. office building should not create a parking problem in the area since the builders followed the city's zoning code which provides 122 parking spaces. They established a lot at 20th street and Cleveland boulevard for 75 vehicles, a lot at 21st and State street for 50 cars, a lot on the alley at State street for 24 autos, a lot at the rear of the bank building for 32 cars and a special parking area under cover for 11 vehicles.

Public Opinion
The parking report also included a special section devoted to public opinion, gathered during personal interviews by the 14-member survey team with as many people parking vehicles in the area as time and individual cooperation would permit.

"Some people," the report stated, "expressed the idea that if the individual parking spaces were marked in some manner, either on the curb or pavement, that more vehicles could be parked. In other words, some motorists park their vehicles at random without thought to the maximum utilization of the curb line for parking purposes. Parking stalls could be outlined by the use of paint on the curb and pavement."

"Other people suggested that overtime parking violations be reduced by law enforcement. The survey indicated that an unusually large number of parking violations were in evidence on the date of the survey (Oct. 14). In fact, it was noted that 204 vehicles parked in excess of two hours per space in the metered area alone. Several of these numbers parked for a full eight hours.

"It is possible that a small percentage returned to the meters and renewed their parking permits by depositing additional coins in the meters, however, it is quite unlikely that the number who parked for four to eight hours in a specific meter stall returned several times to renew the meter time limits."

"Several people suggested that additional off-street parking lots be provided in the core of the business area."

Area Surveyed
The 27-block area included in the survey was bounded by 18th street, Adams street, 22nd street and an area, street-Madison avenue line to the east, providing 1799 spaces of which 699 are metered. In the area surveyed, the metered spaces showed 52.6% usage and unmetered spaces, 47.7% usage.

The immediate business district or "core" area with 176 metered spaces showed 87.25% usage; while specific locations in the unmetered area also showed high usage. The locations included—21st street between Cleveland boulevard and the alley at State street, 81.25% usage; 21st street, Madison

Hoelscher To Attend Industrial Development Conference March 16-17

Some 500 key individuals from all parts of the state, representing banks, railroads, public utilities, chambers of commerce, manufacturing associations and industrial realtors will attend the second annual Governor's Conference on Industrial Development March 16 and 17 in Springfield.

Wilfred F. Hoelscher, secretary-treasurer of Granite City Steel Co. and a member of the advisory board of the state's Division of Industrial Planning and Development, said today "The industrial potential of Illinois is exceptional. We have manpower and natural resources in abundance. The Governor's Conference will be stimulating and informative for the participants and should prove profitable for the people of Illinois."

Hoelscher will be a delegate to the conference, called by Gov. Stratton to discuss Illinois' industrial growth during the next ten years. The two-day meeting is sponsored by the Division of Industrial Planning and Development.

Stratton Will Speak
Gov. Stratton will deliver the

County Valuation - Judge Schuman, $777,758,502 For Taxes This Spring On All-City Ticket

With railroad valuations set by the state at $35,262,207, establishing the new Madison County valuation at $777,758,502, the county clerk's office this week began the task of determining the assessed value of each taxing body in Madison County.

The "taxing agencies" assessment will be used in computing tax rates and extending them in form of taxes on collection books.

Her staff is "rushing the work," but it will be two weeks before any tax rates are available, Miss Eulalia Hotz said.

$4,614,462 Drop
The $35,262,207 figure received Monday from the Illinois Department of Revenue represents a decrease of $3,472,157, or over three-fourths of the total decrease of $4,614,462 from the county's 1958 assessment of $39,674,364.

The new or 1959 valuation will be the basis of tax collections this spring. The $35,262,207 figure represents all local railroad property. This is because the $739,654,465 locally-assessed assessment includes $383,520 railroad property, down 24,735 from a year ago.

A breakdown shows $466,630 under Schedule 30, which is property owned and used by railroads, and $168,890 under Schedule 31, representing railroad right-of-ways used by persons other than the railroads.

$38,145,727 Rail Figure
Combining the state and local figures, railroad value last year set at $38,145,727, or $3,496,802 less than a year ago.

The $3,472,157 state-set decrease follows a $2,115,316 increase in the previous year. A factor in the $3,472,157 drop between the 1958 and 1959 railroad figures was sale of the McKinley Bridge to the city of Venice by the previous owner, Illinois Terminal Railroad.

The 1110's Terminal assessment dropped $1,529,765 from $6,356,924 to $4,827,159.

Railroad Totals
Other new state-set assessments for Madison county railroad property follow:

Alton and Southern, $1,680,333, up $31,477; Chicago and Eastern Illinois, $704,570, down $220,780; Chicago and Northwestern, $1,700,205, down $80,205; Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, $999,560, down $50,486; Gulf, Mobile and Ohio, $2,635,145, down $108,795; Illinois Central, $1,434,654, down $42,024; New York Central, $3,551,382, down $223,770; New York, Chicago and St. Louis, $4,097,179, down $17,474; Pennsylvania, $3,683,336, down $341,192; Terminal Railroad Association, $6,801,876, down $335,415; Wabash, $2,647,718, down $198,396; and Missouri-Illinois Bridge and Belt, $550,000, down $25,000.

The state's announcement of new assessments came three weeks later than the similar listing a year ago. Miss Hotz said.

Two Deputies

previous day, the officials said Tuesday, but they quoted Musso as pointing out in the discussion that two Madisonians were on the deputy staff.

Additional alleged retaliation developed yesterday when Daly took a stand against use of writs for operation of the cities of Madison and Venice. The Alton attorney said he plans to investigate the two cities' bridge tolls.

Relate Offers
Political offers reported by the mayors were that Musso would support a Venice township resident for sheriff in two years; that he would change his plans to run for county treasurer in two years and instead run for state senator; and that Venice township would have two assistant state's attorneys under Daly instead of one. He assured the officials that he could speak for Daly in promising the additional assistant, they said.

When the mayors said they would not change their decision to support Musso, the sheriff became angry, they related. "Even if he had any chance of persuading us, he has lost it now," Dr. Lee commented.

Both mayors acknowledged past differences with Musso, but said he has done a competent job as state's attorney, cooperated with police in prosecution of criminal cases and earned widespread respect for living up to pre-election pledges. The de-mands cited were Musso's campaign against Austin Lewis, Madison attorney, four years ago and a dispute over alleged law violations at several Venice taverns.

The meeting was set up by Maeras at Musso's request, with the participants designated by the sheriff. County Democratic Chairman John Kendrick of Madison also was to attend but was ill with influenza.

Tells Of Firing
Dr. Lee expressed shock that the deputy dependent on their jobs for their livelihood were fired. Skiolek told the Press-Record that the deputies were told by Musso when notified of the discharge that it was for "political reasons" and he had nothing against them or their work. Maeras said a study is being made to determine if any

Snow Cancels Labor Council Meeting

Snow canceled last night's meeting of the Tri-City Trades and Labor Council, AFL-CIO.

Edwin Reiske, president of the council, said only two or three delegates appeared at the Labor Temple.

However, the scheduled speaker, William H. Renshaw, a public candidate for U. S. Senator, arrived from Danville, and when informed of the cancellation, said he would return here at a later date to fulfill the speaking engagement. He left here to return to the Chicago area.

Reiske said all other meetings at the Labor Temple also were canceled. The next meeting of the Trades and Labor Council will be held March 16, the regular date, he said.

Urges Civil Service
Fraundorf urged extension of civil service to deputies, and Maeras said he believes Madison police have been able to render greater service to the public since they have been under civil service.

In a meeting of 11 of the 12 Venice township Democratic committeemen and the Chouteau township Precinct One committeemen immediately before the officials' meeting with Musso, unanimous support was voiced for Mudge and Coroner W. B. Billings. No stand was taken on the circuit court clerk primary race.

In Nameoki township, two incumbent committeemen and an unopposed candidate in a third precinct are supporting Mudge. Committeemen candidates in the other two Nameoki precincts are known as Monte Carlo, 20,422 permanent residents. This does not include transient devotees of games of chance in the gambling casinos.

Buck Lal, Long Island University basketball coach, is the son of Bill (Buck) Lal who once had a baseball tryout with the New York Giants.

Over 1000 Persons Observe YMCA In Action Monday Night

Over 1000 persons toured the facilities of the Granite City YMCA Monday night during the organization's annual open house. YMCA General Secretary C. A. Macmillan said attendance was "the largest on record" and called the event "the most successful we have ever staged."

The 7 to 9:30 p. m. open house followed the annual meeting of the board of directors, with president G. W. Hoelscher presiding. Hoelscher told board members gathered in the large auditorium "We feel sure that with the continued lay interest and the support of the citizens, we will continue to make available to this community an interesting YMCA program."

Visit YMCA At Any Time
Hoelscher suggested that citizens take time to visit the YMCA and observe its activities at any time. "I feel sure you will be impressed with the facilities and with the program that is being offered," he said. "Our general secretary and his staff have done everything possible to continue to improve our facilities and to make the programs more interesting and of greater service to the people of this community."

Demonstrations of every phase of the various programs undertaken during the year at the YMCA were presented between 7 and 9:30 Monday night. Activities in the gymnasium, judo room and swimming pool attracted the largest crowds, but most visitors also found time to tour the small auditorium, Teen Town lobby, Teen Age department club rooms, weight lifting room, Boys' department and Women's department, where displays and demonstrations were used to explain the operation of the various phases of the YMCA program.

Members of the Women's department served refreshments during the evening in the large

Why pay $10000 more
than a Galaxie by Ford?

Last year, hundreds of thousands of people found that the Galaxie was "the buy" of a lifetime. In every detail it was the equal or master of cars costing hundreds of dollars more. The Galaxie by Ford became the best-selling car in the world. And now—for 1960—with all its advances in style, ride, room—the Galaxie is a better buy than ever!

Yes, this year more than ever, Galaxie is the Thunderbird of the low-price field. Want Thunderbird elegance? Look at Galaxie's rich carpeting and pleated fabric! You want Thunderbird performance? Thunderbird's own V-8 gives it to you, under Galaxie's sloping safety-roof hood. Want a wonderful new world of ride? Feel how Galaxie's new wide track and five-foot-long rear springs can uncurl the corners.

This 1960 Galaxie—for all its go and glamour—has all the room you'd ever want or need. More real and true room for six passengers than you can get in some high-priced cars. Honestly, does it make sense to spend more when you can travel in luxury at a low Ford price? We're waiting to prove our point with a side and a deal to please you. We'd be delighted to see you now.

Illinois Council of Skin and Scuba Divers, and maintains a training program throughout the winter months.

Family swimming is a popular activity at the "Y," while the organization offers senior citizens and beginners' swimming courses, all conducted in the YMCA pool.

To further relations between the employees of local industries and to provide wholesome recreation for men in industry, the YMCA Men's department continued its Industrial Basketball League this fall and winter. The basketball season ended this week.

Ministers' Class
Local ministers may take advantage of a special Monday morning physical fitness and recreational class in the Men's department, consisting of swimming, team room periods, basketball, volleyball and exercises.

The Men's Physical Director Robert Dant lists 20 ministers as participating at the present time.

Another important organization affiliated with the YMCA is the Granite City Judo Club, which recently completed a new judo room in the basement of the "Y" building.

One of the best in the area, it is equipped with a 20x27-foot canvas covered mat, and will be the scene of the club's second annual invitational judo meet Saturday.

The room, an adjacent office and furnishings are all the work of the 48 active members of the club. Objectives of the club are to promote sport judo within the community and to offer wholesome physical activity.

Both local residents and out-of-town participants in one of more of the phases of an extended program offered in the Women's department, the report showed.

"Slim Gym Club"
The "Slim Gym Club" offers a full range of exercises to women in an especially equipped room which includes machine exercises, vibrator table and belt, for machine, exercise cycles and a foot massage machine.

Women members of the YMCA may also use the steam room at specified times during the week, and a massage program also is available.

Regular "Y" membership for women consists of gym and swimming classes and two nights and on several days each week. Games and exercises in the gym include basketball, volleyball and paddle ball, plus workouts on the rebound mat and parallel bars.

The swimming classes for women are strictly recreational, but anyone experiencing difficulty with swimming techniques has instructional help available. Seventy-seven women completed the beginner swimming requirements in the past year.

Expanded Class
Plans to include special classes in golf, ceramics, military, square dancing and synchronized swimming, the establishment of a mixed young peoples group and an interest group for senior citizens are being considered by the Women's department. Mrs. Leona Pratt is Women's secretary.

HY and Tri-HY clubs and their activities are the most important factors in the YMCA's Teenage department, the final division considered in the annual report.

Three HY clubs for young men and 16 Tri-HY groups for young ladies were in operation during the past year at the YMCA, the report showed. The purpose of these organizations is to "create, maintain and extend throughout the home, school and community high standards of Christian character."

During the year each club is required to undertake two parent projects, two community projects and two self-improvement projects in addition to participating in Youth and Government and World Service programs.

Teen Town Council
The YMCA Teen Town Council, made up of 30 young men and women, has responsibility for planning social activities held regularly at the "Y," including regular Friday night dances, the King and Queen dance and the Snow Princess Dance.

Nine of the HY and Tri-HY clubs participated in Youth and Government programs for the first time in 1959. Purpose of the program is to familiarize teenagers with the duties and responsibilities of state legislators.

Delegates from YMCA's throughout the state "take over" the state legislature for two days, elect their own officials and prepare their own legislation.

Project Raloes 1960
Last year, the report of Teen Age Department Secretary Miss Pat Mega showed the clubs took part in a World Service project for the first time. Men bers sold cookies and made a profit of $500, all of which was used to assist unfortunate people in foreign countries.

The outstanding programs of six local clubs last year earned them Honor Club recognition. The list included Delta Lambda Phi, Epsilon, Iota, Kappa, Phi, Tau, Omega Psi and Zeta Tau. The Teen Age committee selected Iota as the top outstanding club of 1959, while Gamma Tau was named the top sophomore club by the committee.

The Teen Age department also carried out a varied program of physical activities for its members. The "Kingfish Diving Club" for teenagers makes use of scuba equipment and has qualified instructors available for a variety of classes at the "Y" pool.

Standards are kept high and club members vie for a "Diver of the Month" award. In February and March of last year, the department also offered a senior lifesaving course for its members. Ten young people graduated from the first class, and another was conducted in June.

Four basketball teams were organized into a Teen Age league at the YMCA, continuing one of the oldest phases of the department's program. In April the department set up and ran a table tennis tournament, and volleyball league, which included four male, four female and two mixed teams, completed.

Other activities included the entry of two YMCA Teen Age club softball teams in the Wilson Park League, and "Form Fit" classes for girls in January and October. Instruction was given in exercises, proper diet, correct posture and poise.

During the year, the report continued, three new physical programs, wrestling, judo, and the already mentioned scuba diving classes, were introduced into the Teen Age department.

An adult-department committee to develop, promote and supervise the activities of the Teen Age department. Similar in scope to the Boys' department committee, the committee is made up of laymen who plan the Teen Age program "to create, maintain, and extend throughout the community high standards of Christian character."

United Fund Agency
A United Fund agency, the local YMCA received $30,443 from the UF in 1959. Other receipts, according to a report submitted by Treasurer W. L. Brown and Finance Chairman Harold R. Fisher at the annual meeting Monday night, held just prior to the open house, showed:

Cash Balance Jan. 1, 1959, $400; and income including: residence rentals, $22,140; adult and youth memberships, $17,188; trading accounts, $4215; renovation fund, $800; and Teen Town, $7301, a total of $90,993.

Disbursements by department included: youth programs, $29,698; residence rentals, $18,140; general administration, $18,153; house maintenance, $18,618; renovation, $2921; together with a deficit of $838 as of Dec. 31, 1959.

Cops! No Backboard! Regional Game Postponed

Penilton 'Brings Down House' All Games Set Back; GC-Alton Friday

A near-capacity crowd of basketball fans braved 10 inches of snow last night in hopes of witnessing the Kahok-Tiger semi-final contest at the Collinsville regional tournament, but they will have to come back tonight to see Collinsville do battle with Edwardsville. Granite City will play Alton at 8 p.m. Friday, with the final game at 8:30 p.m. Saturday.

The snowstorm, worst in the area in several years, did not force school officials to cancel the game, but a broken backboard did.

During the preliminary warm-ups before the game, Edwardsville's Tony Penilton, jumping to touch the rim with the rest of his teammates in one of Coach Joe Lucero's prescribed loosening-up exercises, hung on the basket rim — with disastrous effects.

Backboard shatters. The pressure applied caused the glass backboard to shatter, and tournament officials spent the next hour and a half trying to locate a replacement. The task proved impossible in the snow, and the game was finally postponed at 9:15 p.m.

Collinsville Principal Fred Riddle said this morning that the tournament schedule has been set back 24 hours. Collinsville and Edwardsville will play their game at 8 o'clock tonight, and the Granite City-Alton semifinal, originally set to be played this evening, is now scheduled for 8 p.m. tomorrow.

The championship finals will be played Saturday.

Tickets Will Be Honored Riddle said tickets from last night's scheduled season opener honored this evening, and that similar arrangements have been made for the Friday and Saturday games. Riddle said two replacement backboards have been obtained and the broken one will be replaced in time for tonight's semifinals.

Granite City Principal Lawrence McCauley said this morning that tickets for the postponed Granite City-Alton game will be on sale at the high school office until noon Friday for fans who have not already obtained them.

A berth in the championship round of the tournament, the Warriors and Redbirds meet tomorrow.

The Warriors have come out best in two of three previous meetings with Alton this season, but if the Granite City-Redbirds meetings earlier in the year can be used as a bellwether, tomorrow's affair ought to be hotly contested.

Alton tripped the Warriors 69-61 in the Dupo invitational, but Andy Sullivan's crew clipped the Redbirds' wings twice in conference play later in the season, 57-54 and 91-80.

On Tuesday night, Alton played sluggish, slow-down basketball but still had more than enough to deal with cold Wood River in a first-round game, 67-58.

By way of contrast—and it had fans talking freely among themselves as they left the Collinsville gym—Granite City's battle with Madison was a whole of a basketball game, full of thumping, free-shooting style of play which was a refreshing switch from the tight control played by both Alton and Wood River.

The Trojans, perhaps with dreams of crossing up the experts for the second successive year, battled Granite City on even terms for the better part of three quarters, but experienced a fatal defensive lapse in the closing minutes and were defeated 72-59.

The white-clad Warriors staged a demonstration of how the basketball should be put through the hoop. With the outcourt duo of Rich Williams and Bob Price, by far the tops in the tournament, pouring through 50 points between them, Granite City hit 29 of 47 shots from the field for 61%.

On the opposite side of the fence, the Trojans' scoring combination of Ed Walker and Otis Wright was nearly as impressive. Walker, again covered by two, and sometimes three, Warrior defencesmen, reverted to a sweeping hook shot to pile up 26 points. Wright, getting clear for his quick one-hander, added 16 more.

For most of the first two periods, in fact, these four players took turns in moving their respective squads ahead. Over that 16-minute span, the game was tied eight times and the lead changed hands on five occasions, with Madison on top 32-31 at the halftime break.

The Warriors held Walker to one free throw in the third quarter and grabbed a 31-48 lead they never lost. With Granite leading 43-41 with 2:30 left in the third period, Jim Simpson rebounded a missed shot by Williams and was fouled, making good on a three-point play. He repeated the procedure a few moments later in what was the turning point of the game.

Madison could pull no closer than four points at any time in the final stanza. With the Warriors leading 62-58, the roof fell in on Charles "Buddy" Mueller's

ONE-MAN GANG tactics of Madison's Ed Walker, shown tipping in a missed shot here, were not enough Tuesday night against the Happy Warriors. Walker scored 26 points but Granite City moved into the semifinals of the regional tourney with a 72-59 victory. Involved in the action here are Madison's Lemon Smith (left foreground), and Granite City's Bob Price (behind Smith), Frank Knight (24) and Carl Wortham (10). Granite City will meet Alton in a semifinal game Friday night.

INDUSTRIAL PLAYOFFS Postponed; Park Teams Will Play First-round playoff games in the YMCA Industrial basketball league set for last night were postponed. YMCA Physical Director Bob Dant said today. No rescheduled date has been announced, but Dant said the games probably will be played next week.

Park district Recreation Director Harold Brown said this morning that games scheduled tonight in the Church basketball league and in the final playoff round of the Classic league will be played as scheduled.

The Classic playoff championship will be decided at 7 o'clock tonight when Modern Exterminators and the Teachers meet on the Coolidge junior high school floor.

A Church league game between Second Baptist and the Engineer Depot Church, originally set for the Nameoki gym, also will be played at Coolidge, beginning at 8:15 tonight.

Edwardsville Nips Rams Rally Twice From 10-Point Deficits To Give Favorite Tigers Scare; Finish With 15-7 Record

Stan Lynch's Lincoln of Venice cagers finished the 1959-60 season with a 15-7 record after Monday's elimination from the state playoffs at the hands of Edwardsville 74-72 in the Collinsville regional tourney.

The record might have been 18-4, but the Rams had to forfeit three games early in the season. Collinsville defeated Roxana 77-37 in Monday's other game.

In its last 1959-60 game, Lincoln came from ten points behind twice before time finally ran out. Immediately before the halftime intermission the Rams trailed 35-25 before a brief rally put them only six down at the half, 33-29.

In the third quarter, Lincoln came back strong to lead the clutch scoring of Robert Davis, Thomas Hall and Robert Clark to grab the lead at the end of the period, 48-46.

But after the Rams gained their last lead of 54-55 with 5:54 left in the game, Edwardsville hit the hot streak, scoring 12 of the next 15 points to tie, The fans began to leave the gym with the Tigers ahead 67-57, with only 2:30 left.

Still, the Rams failed to give up, even though Davis—who led all scorers with 31 points—fouled out with 1:02 left.

With the help of a full-court press, Lincoln stole the ball several times, allowing Hall to score twice and Charles Hatter one. Several free throws also narrowed the gap before Edwardsville stalled out the last ten seconds with a slim two-point lead.

Lincoln's inability to hit free throws in the second period had a great deal to do with the outcome. The Rams missed seven times in the quarter and 12 times during the contest.

Edwardsville, on the other hand, had trouble in the final quarter when the Tigers missed four times, several times on the one-and-one free throw situation.

For the game, Edwardsville missed nine attempts. The Rams finished with 22 to 34 free throw attempts and the Tigers made 16 of 25.

Edwardsville outshot Lincoln 42% to 38% from the field.

Whether Robert Felton, who turned 19 on Sunday and was ineligible Monday, would have made a difference no one can tell. His replacement, Hatter, failed to score the 12 points Felton usually scored, but he turned in a satisfactory half-handed performance and gathered in several rebounds.

Davis and Chavis were the top guns for the losers and both had even the Edwardsville fans praising them after their display of long jump shots and drive in layups. Each of the two players hit on nine of 18 shots.

Davis added 13 free throws, while Chavis missed his only two attempts to account for the difference in their point making. Chavis hit 10 of 12 free throws.

Leonard Ddra paced Edwardsville with 22 points followed by Tom Vanzo with 20.

Other scoring: Lincoln—Hall 14, Hatter 7, Franklin 2, Crawford 2, Hatter 2, Hatter 2, Edwardsville—Penelton 15, Connors 12, Vernon 5.

Classic Playoffs

Spengler Oil's Upset; Exterminators Advance

Modern Exterminators and the Teachers will meet in a single game tonight to decide the playoff championship in the park district's classic basketball league.

Modern turned back a stubborn Friedman's of Madison team 68-51 Monday night, and the Teachers pulled a 67-66 upset in winning from Spengler Oil.

Tonight's single game finale will get underway at 7:30 on the Coolidge junior high school gym floor, site of Monday's first playoff game.

The Teachers put together two big quarters — the second and third — against Spengler Oil, and it proved the difference after the eventual winners had started slowly and trailed 7-14 after one quarter of play.

One point back at intermission time, the Teachers took a two-point lead in the third period and hung on. Bill Terrell broke loose for the squad, which finished third in the regular season standings, netting 26 points.

Spengler Oil's defense was built around high-scoring Bob Miller, but the league's top point producer per game came through with 23 markers anyway.

Art Brochers was high scorer for Spengler Oil with 16 points, and Joe Gonzalez had 15, also for the losers. Both teams missed numerous opportunities to go ahead from the free throw line. Each squad missed 13 free throws and each committed 22 fouls.

The Exterminators built a 48-34 halftime lead over Friedman's in the evening's first game, and then led in the third period.

Appearing on the eight-match card will be David Jones, 247-pound world champion; Fred West, 160-pound open champion; and Mike Brown, sparring partner for Don Jordan when the professional trained for a bout in St. Louis recently.

The boxing show, which will begin at 8 p.m., is being sponsored by Jack Bogosian and John Bonville, local boxing trainers. All fighters appearing Friday were finalists in the 1960 Louis Golden Gloves, Bogosian said.

Growth Of Golf In Decatur 'Fantastic'

In the last decade, golf has become one of the greatest participation sports in the nation, according to a report by the American Golf Association.

Co-holder of the world's mixed twosome record, as well as former St. Louis title, the champion, Cochran has been rated by PGA as one of the three best golfers in the United States. He won the St. Louis title 10 times and the Missouri championship twice.

Cochran described golf as a fine sport and an excellent way for people of all ages to maintain their physical well-being. During his talk, he demonstrated the use of various clubs, the proper grip and stance "for those over 30 who want to break 100."

He was introduced by Herbert Schermer, program chairman.

President E. L. Ackerman read a letter of appreciation for Rotary's gift to the Mental Health Clinic, and also a note from former president Harry Swan, now residing in New York City, who requested that the Skivek, Rotary weekly bulletin, be sent to him.

The club's annual Horse Show will be held August 28, Ackerman announced, and it will be directed by B. E. Moody.

Eagles, First Assembly Win Church Games

The Polish Eagles had a field day Monday in the Church league, downing Third Baptist 105-53. Ed Modruskie topped the winners with 30 points as his squad set a new high for Church league scoring in a single game this season. Third Baptist will be dropped from the league due to alleged use of ineligible players.

Jerry Modruskie added 24 points. Ray Jones 21, Rich Kalka 15 and George Dillard 12 to the final total. The Eagles enjoyed their biggest advantage, 51-38, after three quarters of play.

First Assembly of God moved closer to title and undefeated Second Baptist by defeating St. Joseph in the second game of the evening at the Nameoki gym, 88-47.

Paced by Jerry Wintjen, who posted in 20 of his 30 points in the first half, and John Draper, who had 17 in a big third quarter and ended with 24, First Assembly was never threatened. Second Baptist is 8-0.

Second Baptist is assured of a 4-0 state, since the game with Third Baptist will be awarded to the league leaders by forfeit. Al Costello led St. Joseph, now 4-6, with 12 points.

Inter-City League To Meet Here Sunday

Scheduling and advertising will be the principal business at a meeting of managers and officers of the Northwestern Illinois Inter-City Baseball league here next Sunday.

League representatives, including those from three local teams, will meet at 2 p.m. at the Knights of Columbus Hall, 2052 Edison avenue. League Secretary Henry Huser said.

Cellar Team Will Meet Old Milwaukee Five Saturday Night

Wood River Bowl Lewis and Clark Motor Lodge, deep in the cellar of the Southern Illinois Bowling Proprietors Association Classic bowling league, will furnish first-place Granite City Old Milwaukee its opposition at 7 p.m. Saturday when the league rolls at the Fairmont Bowl in Collinsville.

Owners of a more comfortable three-game lead over second-place Alton Palastals after it shut out the Carling Stags last week, the Bowland crew now sports a 578 average and has two team members with 200 or better averages.

Jim Vrenclik is tied with Claude Fears of O'Fallon Sports Bowl for the top spot with a 202 mark, while Nick Lombardi, thanks to last week's 779 high single, moved up to an even 200 pins a game.

Second-place Palastals will meet Bowlin of East Alton, the Stags will take on Sports Bowl and the hosts will have a variety to do battle with East St. Louis Bowl-A-Way Lanes' Brunswick Pro Shop five in other pairings.

Old Milwaukee has a 51-24 won-lost record, the Palastals are 48-27 and the Stags 39-38.

Inter-City Officials Here Sunday To Discuss 1960 Members; May Expand

Final determination of membership in the Southwestern Illinois Inter-City Baseball League and the setting of opening dates for the 1960 season will be the subjects of a meeting of league representatives Sunday at 2 p.m. in the Saloons of Columbia House at 2053 Edison avenue.

League President Vernon Lucas said today that 10 ball clubs are "in the fold, officially," one additional application is under consideration; he has information that the Venice-Madison Dugouts, one of four Quad-City teams in the loop last year, do not wish to drop out as had been indicated, and that still another club, the Three-M' champion Carpenter Baseball Club, wishes to become affiliated with the Inter-City league.

"Then there is the additional possibility that Edwardsville can move along with other cities and towns in this area as a member of the league in 1960," Lucas said. The Edwardsville club dropped out of the league after having been a member of the Inter-City league.

Lucas said clubs which already hold franchises for 1960 are Sacred Heart and the Steelworkers club, both of Granite City; defending champion McAtter Glass and State Savings and Loan, both of East St. Louis; the Collinsville Roosters; VFW of Highland; Greenville American Legion; White City; the Troy Red Birds; and the Maryville Red Sox.

State Savings and Loan and White City will be new faces in the league this year, and Highland will be playing in the league for only the second season. The other eight besides State and White City were in the ten-team circuit last year along with the Dugouts and Granite City Steel Co.

"At the rate interest has been shown in the league for the 1960 season," Lucas said, "the possibility exists that a change may be required to accommodate any number of teams above 12."

The present Inter-City league constitution permits no less than four clubs nor more than 12 in the two divisions. The only previous year in which the limit of 12 teams was reached was 1942.

County Is Being Hurt

It also would project the county's financial position, present and future, the extent of highway and future needs, parks, school expansion and population density.

Illustrating the importance of this data, he pointed out that major highways, as well as other developments such as exist in Granite City, "historically bring new industrial and commercial growth along their corridors."

Conversely, lack of a land use pattern puts the county at a disadvantage in dealing with the state when highways are projected. "We have nothing to say about their location, whereas with a plan the state will integrate highways to best serve the plan and, consequently, our needs as we see them."

While agricultural land is noted on land use maps, May stressed that it is specifically exempted by law from zoning.

Zoning Grows Orderly Growth
Zoning of the county will enable orderly growth, May said, and follows in natural sequence the determination of what already exists in the various unincorporated areas. It protects residential, industrial, public and commercial property by preventing adverse encroachment of one upon the other.

It also would coordinate county and city planning, he continued, and where a city plan commission exists the city has the right of veto over a county proposal within one and one-half miles of the city limits.

"Should a conflict of opinion arise when the county plan is before the board of supervisors, a city veto could only be overridden by a two-thirds vote of the county board."

As further protection, and again emphasizing the importance of thorough public understanding of zoning, May said state law requires public hearings in every township in the county prior to action by the board of supervisors.

"This is good because zoning is close to the people, and all questions and problems should be answered to their satisfaction. Zoning is for everybody's protection and it can have little real value unless it is on firm ground with the people."

If funds for the zoning proposal are assured March 16, May said his committee will act swiftly to let a contract for the land use and zoning studies. Five firms already have submitted proposals for both surveys, he said, ranging from $23,750 to $42,000.

He estimated it would take about a year for the studies and public hearings, after which the proposal would go before the board of supervisors for adoption.

Offer Full Support
Following a question period, members of the Madison County Citizens Planning Committee, a 15-year-old volunteer organization, voted unanimously to lend their full support toward acquainting the public with the land use-zoning program.

The committee also offered its services to urge approval by the county board March 16 of the necessary additional funds for the survey. As one member pointed out, "the total cost is barely 10 cents per capita and the benefits that are almost certain to accrue in more jobs, stabilized property values and governmental stability can run into the millions."

C. W. Hoelcher, Granite City, chairman of the citizens' committee, presided over the meeting. There were 20 present, including several members of May's committee and three from the seven-man official Madison County Planning Commission. Thomas Butler, Alton; Harry Kluge, Edwardsville, and E. G. Schmitt, Granite City.

Illinois State Fair officials announced that Friday, Aug. 19, will be designated "The Golden Age Day" in honor of those persons attending the exposition who are 60 years of age or older.

Those concerned with promoting activities for children, far officials decided to provide something special for older Illinoisans.

Among the highlights will be awards to the couple married the greatest number of years, the longest married couple, and the man and woman each holding the longest record of exhibiting at the Illinois State Fair.

The couple married the longest will be crowned King and Queen of the Golden Age.

Those planning are a talent show, hobby show, checker and domino tournament, prizes for the finest hat worn by a woman and awards for period costumes, bonnets, dresses, etc. All talent and exhibition events will be presented in the Illinois building.

Because circumstances may prevent some older people from attending the Golden Age Day programs, the State Fair will offer awards for the best letter written by a woman over 60 or a man over 60 regarding retirement ideas. Information and entry blanks for Golden Age Day can be secured by writing Mrs. Sarah J. Meyers, State Fairgrounds, Springfield, Ill. The 1960 State Fair opens Friday, Aug. 12 and continues through Sunday, Aug. 21.

Attendance at rural fairs in Illinois was 2,569,007 during 1958, an increase of 187,814 over 1957. According to a tentative list prepared by the Illinois Department of Agriculture, county fairs and expositions in Illinois will total 104 this year.

Declaration of intent to hold fairs is received from fair associations before April 1 to qualify for state aid. The fair groups must also indicate whether they will operate under the fair and exposition fund or the agricultural premium fund.

In 1959 the 12 fairs that operated under the exposition fund received $1,818,777 in state aid. Ninety-one fairs that operated under the agricultural premium fund received $1,069,975. Funds for both types of expositions are received from a tax on pari-mutuel wagering on Illinois race tracks.

Costain Novel Among New Books At Venice Library

Among the new books now available at the Venice public library is a novel by Thomas B. Costain entitled "The Darkness and the Dawn." The story is filled with suspense from beginning to end and includes an international horse race, a spectacular trial in an unusual court and one of the most dramatic battles of all times. Miss Catherine McGee, librarian, reports.

"This new Costain novel will be compared to his surprise best-seller, 'The Black Rose,' which swept the book lists for many months in the 1940s, although this latest book is, in fact, a much superior," Miss McGee says.

"Portraying the days when the might of Alvin Karpis hung over the world like a black cloud, the story, drawn on the pages of historical fact, is the best historical novel that has come from the pen of Costain."

"The Cave" is Robert Warren's sixth novel and returns to the contemporary scene for the first time since "All the Kings Men," a Pulitzer prize winner in 1946. Once again he demonstrates his ability to give readers of fiction a more realistic experience that is also significant and rewarding. The event is a built-in place in Johnstown, Tenn., in the

"A young man is believed to be trapped in a cave, and Johnstown becomes the center of national attention as television cameras, promoters, and newsmen move in to exploit the attempt at rescue, and thousands of spectators gather at the mouth of the cave, driven by the fascination of disaster. Warren moves backward in time to crucial happenings in the life of each individual in the cast, an astonishingly variegated group in Tennessee."

"Among the new biographies is 'It's Good to Be Alive' by Roy Campanella. 'The General' by Isabel Ross, the life of General Grant, who played a decisive part in the career of the general, into whose heart and mind Miss Ross's book gives an unprecedented glimpse. 'God Man' by Clarissa Start Davidson, St. Louis, the biography of Pastor Niemoller, an evolution from brilliant U-boat commander and strong German nationalist to a world peace leader, a man whose current preoccupation is peace."

"The 'Youthful Queen Victoria' by Dornier Creston is a first-rate biography of particular interest at a moment when a young woman wears the crown of England for the first time since Victoria. A biography of Norman Rockwell and one of Stuart Symington also have been added."

Other new non-fiction books added are "The Animal Kingdom," Vols. I and II, by Fredrick Drummer; "American Museum of Natural History" in four volumes, by Edwin M. Westcott; "The Children's Treasury," Vols. I and II, by Marjorie Barrows; "Home Remedies and Improvements" by Popular Mechanics; "Handicraft and Hobbies" by Marguerite Ide; two copies of the Bible in pictures, "St. James" and "Catholic"; "The Encyclopedia of Modern Science," Vols. I and II; and "Nature Atlas of America" and "Outline History of the World," Vols. I and II, by Gaylord Harris Barnes.

The following fiction titles also have been added: "The People's Padres" by Emmett McLaughlin; "Jarrett's Jade" by Francis Yerby; and "The World of Science" by Isaac Asimov.

Income Tax Aid Available At IRS Office Fridays

Another reminder to "Tax Citizens that Fridays are "Quid pro quo" assistance days" at the local office of the Internal Revenue Service was issued today by Jay C. Philpott, district Internal Revenue director. The local office is located in the Commerce building, 1925 Edison avenue.

IF YOU ARE . . .

- Sick and tired of the Levee Board Loafers and Politicians on the Public Payroll
- Dictatorship of the present Levee Board through the "Boss Machine"
- Taxes without a chance to vote

HERE'S YOUR ONE REAL CHANCE TO DO SOMETHING ABOUT IT!

Payroll padding; politicians and loafers getting checks by mail for not working for the Levee Board or City.

Haven't we put up with The Clout long enough?

They tell us there isn't enough money to clean our ditches and to keep the water away from our homes, but there are now hundreds on the payroll for vote-getting purposes.

The present Levee Board and its blank check deal was defeated by other legislative groups from Illinois and the Political Boss says, "We'll try some other way."

No one's going to mend matters by pointing out that most Levee Board employees and some politicians are honest, which they are. It's no help to realize that some Levee Board employees do a good day's work, which they do.

It's time to look the fact squarely in the eye and insist that someone start managing the store and keeping it clean, even in the corners.

The only time a Political Machine straightens up and files right is when enough voters get mad enough to show them who's really the boss. The time to get mad enough is right now.

Consider the present Levee Board candidates in the Democratic Primary. Each one was hand-picked by the Boss Machine. The same candidates have been so busy being political bosses that they have little time left to keep the East Side Levee District operations efficient. A vote for them is a vote for the way things are.

- Dictatorship of the present Levee Board through the "Boss Machine"
- Taxes without a chance to vote

HERE'S YOUR ONE REAL CHANCE TO DO SOMETHING ABOUT IT!

Payroll padding; politicians and loafers getting checks by mail for not working for the Levee Board or City.

Haven't we put up with The Clout long enough?

They tell us there isn't enough money to clean our ditches and to keep the water away from our homes, but there are now hundreds on the payroll for vote-getting purposes.

The present Levee Board and its blank check deal was defeated by other legislative groups from Illinois and the Political Boss says, "We'll try some other way."

No one's going to mend matters by pointing out that most Levee Board employees and some politicians are honest, which they are. It's no help to realize that some Levee Board employees do a good day's work, which they do.

It's time to look the fact squarely in the eye and insist that someone start managing the store and keeping it clean, even in the corners.

The only time a Political Machine straightens up and files right is when enough voters get mad enough to show them who's really the boss. The time to get mad enough is right now.

Consider the present Levee Board candidates in the Democratic Primary. Each one was hand-picked by the Boss Machine. The same candidates have been so busy being political bosses that they have little time left to keep the East Side Levee District operations efficient. A vote for them is a vote for the way things are.

BLUE AND GOLD BANQUET FOR CUB PACK 12

Cub Pack 12, sponsored by Niedringhaus school, held its annual blue and gold banquet Tuesday evening at St. John United Church of Christ on Namecki road. The Webelos opened the banquet with a flag ceremony which was conducted by Mrs. Albert Paoli, and the opening prayer was given by Rev. Paul Surbey, pastor.

Table decorations, made by the cubs and den mothers, were blue trees trimmed with gold leaves in honor of the fiftieth anniversary of scouting.

In lieu of giving awards for the evening, the cubs and their parents and guests were shown a sound movie of the 1897 scout jamboree at Valley Forge, Pa. The 35-minute movie was narrated by a scout.

Cubmaster Edwin Siebold thanked the den mothers for their efforts on the boys' behalf. He then introduced Mrs. Albert Paoli, Mrs. Retha Mehl, Mrs. Dorothy Hartman, Mrs. Madeline Hacke, Mrs. Della Siebold and Mrs. Jean Knox as the pack's den mothers.

Wilma Penrod was introduced as a new den mother. Siebold also recognized the committeemen: Cyril Hommert, Frank Dragovich, Carl Peters and Kenny Anderson.

Guests at the speakers' table were Mr. and Mrs. Dan Brown and children, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Miller Jr., Rev. and Mrs. Surbey, Dr. and Mrs. Stanley Meier, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Tolson and son and Joe Acquaviva. There were approximately 150 at the banquet.

NAMECKI LITTLE LEAGUE MEETING

The Namecki Little League held its first meeting of the 1960 season Monday evening in the cafeteria of Namecki school. The meeting was opened by Bob Withers, president, who named a purchasing committee of Benny Pickler, chairman, and Don Hunt, Jack Ellett and John Hartman. Withers turned the meeting over to Walter Spiceland, last year's president, as a prior commitment made it necessary for him to leave.

Obtaining new sponsors and new uniforms were the main topics under discussion, along with the question of the opening day of the baseball season. Spiceland explained a new system whereby managers can acquire new players to replace those who become too old for league play.

Alex Malzynski, chairman of the equipment committee, explained that most of the managers have not yet turned in lists of equipment. He will use the list to determine what is needed for this season. It was decided to have a concession stand at the 14th of July celebration in Wilson Park.

The next meeting will be held on the regular meeting night March 21, at 7:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria.

OVER 21 CLUB MEETS AT FICURIA HOME

Mrs. Mary Feurka was hostess to the over 21 club Monday evening in her home, 1405 West Ponton road. After an evening spent at games, prizes were awarded to Mrs. Kathleen Heile and Mrs. Fena Shookman.

Using a seasonal decorating theme, Mrs. Feurka served a late dessert course to the prize winners and Mrs. Florence Borders, Mrs. Betty Matheny, Mrs. Dorothy Rutan, Mrs. Mary Doran, Mrs. Leona Johnsen and Mrs. Jean Hamilton. Mrs. Dorothy Brewer and daughter, Mary Beth, were guests for the evening.

The next meeting will be March 7 in the home of Mrs. Dorothy Rutan, 4024 Melrose avenue.

URGES BUSINESS TO SPONSOR BALL TEAMS

The Forum Press-Record Granite City, Ill.

I would like to direct this letter to the attention of sports fans in this area. First, I would like to say that I am a fan of "How many Inter-City baseball games have you attended in the past few years?" and secondly, "Do you have any idea of what it takes to play a game in addition to two teams?"

It takes money, quite a lot of it. Let's look at the cost of a single ball game, for instance. The umpiring staff is paid $16 per game, five baseballs cost another $15, and the bats broken in a game cost another $20. A single game then costs a team an average of $51. Multiply that cost by 11, the number of home games played each year in the league, and the season cost is $440.

Add to that $100 per season for team insurance, and the total cost is $540.

Inter-City teams must get this money somewhere. The usual procedure followed are to sell ad space on score cards and to have the team sponsor the club. It is never easy.

Inter-City baseball clubs must therefore ask for help from the business community. The big business of the Tri-Cities has the financial support to contribute $10 or $20 for ad space in his small way to insure that there will be Inter-City baseball here this summer.

Fifty of the $20 ads fill a score card and account for $1000. But it is not enough money to go into the ad space, there is not enough money to go into the ad space, there is not enough money to go into the ad space.

Inter-City baseball clubs must therefore ask for help from the business community. The big business of the Tri-Cities has the financial support to contribute $10 or $20 for ad space in his small way to insure that there will be Inter-City baseball here this summer.

What better or cheaper method of advertising business is there than to have the team sponsor the club? It is never easy.

Inter-City baseball clubs must therefore ask for help from the business community. The big business of the Tri-Cities has the financial support to contribute $10 or $20 for ad space in his small way to insure that there will be Inter-City baseball here this summer.

out of these Little Leagues at 17 or 18?

There seems only one place for them to go — the Inter-City League, which, I am told, is on a par with class "D" minor league ball. Major league baseball scouts are in attendance at nearly every Inter-City game, looking for talent for their minor league clubs.

Many Inter-City players have made the important step up to minor and even major league baseball. Thus the league's motto: "The league that produces and advances young players into professional baseball."

Who does the business here? It's an excellent opportunity for the generous citizen and space given to the items in your newspaper for the last few years.

The Salon receives credit at the end of the year in Department of the amount of line and publicity, and we are very pleased with the Press-Record's help.

I also want to extend my thanks to Mrs. Freda Leston, Venice reporter for her co-operation with these news items.

PUZZLED BY FIGURES ON POSTERS ALONG HIGHWAY TO THE FORUM OF THE GRANITE CITY PRESS-RECORD

The letter by a local airport manager in your Thursday, Feb. 25 issue is very confusing to me and should be to others who read it. Does he think the combined area required to match the basic facilities at Lambert Field, ought to be 800 acres or is it 14 miles by 2 miles which equals 28 square miles?

Not 640 miles as stated, since one square mile equals 640 acres. To continue his line of arithmetic, one-quarter mile square equals 1/4 x 1/4 = 1/16 square mile. If 2 1/2 miles square equals 6 1/4 square miles, then one square mile equals 640 acres. The area required would be 28 square miles and since one square mile equals 640 acres, the area required would be 18,112 acres.

ANNUAL CUB SCOUT DINNER AT ST. MARK'S

The annual blue and gold cub scout anniversary dinner, this year celebrating 50 years of scouting, was held Sunday evening at the St. Mark's church basement.

Seated at the speakers' table, which was decorated for the occasion with arrangements of blue and gold flowers and candles, were Rev. Robert C. McCarthy, who gave the invocation, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCord and family, Harold Koelker, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Brown and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Morris.

The centerpiece made by Den One was a world globe surrounded by miniature cub scouts. It was made from construction paper and depicted, according to the world, over the globe, suspended by wires, were stars and rocket ships. The centerpiece of Den Two consisted of toilet paper, also surrounded by miniature cub scouts, and a sign that read, "Follow Akele."

Table favors were blue flowers with gold leaves, filled with candies.

The dinner was served by members of St. Mark's Parents and Friends Association. A color film, "Cub Scout Circus" was shown, being followed by a song, "We Are the Happy Cub Scouts," sung by the cubs to the tune of "School Days."

Dan Brown, Unihed district executive, gave a talk on the 50 years of scouting and Rev. McCarthy spoke on "Why Cub Scouting." Milton Morris, institutional representative, discussed the scouting for life held at the Venice-Madison American Legion Home April 8-9.

Cubmaster McCord presented year pins to Harry Hartman, who was transferred to the Webelos, and Leonard Scaturro, Jimmy Miller, Ronnie Pier, Guy Hill, Kenny Patterson, Gary Wallace and Larry Puent, all of Cub Pack One, and to Roger Schaffner, Bobby Douglas and Michael McCord of the Webelos.

Other awards were presented to Kenny McCord, Jimmy Miller, the Ricky Reiderberger, Pier, Hill and Puent. Douglas received his Webelos badge and was transferred to Boy Scout Troop One, Scoutmaster Harold Koelker presented him with his tenderfoot badge.

Jack Tolliver was recognized as the new den chief for Den One. Mesdames Margaret Lee, Margaret Reiderberger, Delores Hill, Betty Wallace and Marlene Miller were given certificates of appreciation for their services as den mothers during the year. Approximately 80 persons attended the dinner.

A Venice Boy Scout Mothers club meeting has been set for this evening at the home of Mrs. Aileen Patterson, 1018 Second street.

Ermil Brown, 801 Fourth street, was released Wednesday morning from the Missouri-Pacific Hospital, St. Louis, where he had undergone tests and treatment.

St. Mark's Intermediate Girl Scout Troop 61 met Tuesday afternoon at the school basement with the co-leader, Mrs. Margaret Lee and Mrs. Margaret Reiderberger. Following the opening ceremony, a discussion was held on Girl Scout Week and on an open house to be held at Camp Lakota, March 27.

The group continued work toward the sewing badge and on the Marian badge. Girls attending were Marilyn Gontman, Catherine Levy, Nancy Scaturro, Barbara Mullins, Linda Levy, Virginia Pace, Kathy Ochot, Mary Donna Scaturro, Sharon Parker, and Mary Frances Lee.

Intermediate Girl Scout Troop 62 met Tuesday afternoon at the school basement with the leader, Mrs. N. A. Meacham. A fly-up ceremony was held for two girls, Carolyn Minton and Gloria Kinsley, who were presented with pins.

A discussion was held on a play to be given by the girls at the next meeting. A dessert luncheon was served, and other girls present were Linda Fries, Glenda Brown, Cheryl Caudron, Beverly McCurrier and Judy Austin.

Rev. Charles R. Dillman, 419 Lincoln avenue, pastor of the Venice Methodist Church, attended a conference at the board meeting held Monday at Lebanon, Ill. ## CHEESE BLINTZERS

In the following, pancakes come to the table as a delightful desert. This is a make-ahead, popped into the oven 15 minutes before serving, and presented as a hot, luscious meal finale.

2 cups buttermilk pancake mix
1 1/2 to 2 cups milk
1 egg
2 tablespoons melted shortening or salad oil

Mix all ingredients with spoon or rotary beater just until smooth. Bake about 20 pancakes. Hold between towels. Spread each pancake with blintzer filling.

Roll and place in lightly buttered oblong pan, 13 by 9 1/2 by 2 inches. Sprinkle with 3 tablespoons confectioners' sugar. Place in 350-degree oven until sugar glazes and rolls are about 15 minutes.

Serve hot with currant or other red jelly. Yield: 5 to 10 servings, allowing 2 or 4 pancakes per serving.

Blintzer Filling
1 1/2 cups cottage cheese
1/4 cup sugar
1/4 teaspoon lemon rind
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/4 teaspoon salt

Mix all ingredients until well blended and fill pancakes as instructed. (Note: Blintzers may be prepared early in the day, then the final 15-minute baking may be done just before serving.)

Well-timed silence hath more eloquence than speech.

Army Depot Fireman At Annual Conference

Lawrence Burns of the Granite City Engineer Fire Department is in Memphis, Tenn., attending the 32nd annual Fire Department Instructors Conference in municipal auditorium, participating in four days study and inquiry into latest methods of fire prevention and fire fighting.

On this year's conference program are full scale demonstrations of controlling fires involving nuclear and rocket fuels, railroad and truck tank cars and liquefied petroleum gases. Among other subjects, the conference is considering the question of why churches burn, the problem of combating large fires in industry and how children can be best safeguarded from fires occurring in school buildings.

Demonstration fires will be staged by Memphis' fire department, under Acting Chief E. A. Hamilton, at the city's new fire and police training center and will occupy one full afternoon of the four day meeting.

Over 2500 persons from more than 40 states, Canada and several foreign countries are registered at this international fire service gathering. The conference is attended by key fire department officers, educators from colleges and universities, fire and industrial plant protection engineers, and public officials, all of whom participate only on invitation of the two conference sponsors, Fire Prevention Department of Western Actuarial Bureau, Chicago, and the Memphis fire department.

The conference, now in its 32nd year, has been a national clearing house for the exchange of ideas and experience for improvements in fire fighting methods, in firemen's training, and in fire prevention measures. Presiding officer of the conference is Emmett T. Cox, Director of Training of the Western Actuarial Bureau Fire Prevention Department.

John Dobrinic, 50, Found Dead In Garage

John M. Dobrinic, 50, of 811 Grand avenue, Madison, was found dead in his garage at 8 p.m. Wednesday, after his wife, Helen, found him sitting unconscious behind the wheel of his car in the family garage upon her return home from church.

Madison police, who were called to the scene, said the garage was filled with carbon monoxide fumes. An inquest will be conducted by Deputy Laurence Francis Leiby. Mr. Dobrinic was born in St. Louis and lived in Madison 20 years. He was employed as a freight handler for the Frisco Railroad. He attended St. Mary's Eastern Orthodox Catholic Church and was a member of the Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks, Frisco Lodge 44.

Besides his wife he is survived by a brother, Joseph Dobrinic of St. Louis; four sisters, Mrs. Barbara Smith, Mrs. Ann Billy, Mrs. Catherine Kallbar of St. Louis and Mrs. Frances Bravin of Collinsville; and his mother, Mrs. Helen Miller of St. Louis. Funeral arrangements are given in today's obituary column.

New Party Formed To Oppose Levee Board

A group of citizens under the chairmanship of Gerald E. Kent, local realtor, organized Monday to form a new political party to be known as the "Citizens Anti-Levee Board Party."

Kent said the group's intention is to oppose the powerful political machine, and that the party is opposing City Judge Fred P. Schuman for re-election as well as Mrs. Helen Homan for clerk of the city court. He pointed out that Judge Schuman "has been allied politically with the levee board group for many years."

The new party has selected as its candidates for the April 30 city court election, Atty. Horace L. Calvo for judge and Mrs. Marilyn Ward as clerk of the city court. Mrs. Ward is the widow of former school board president Harry Ward Jr. Neither she nor Calvo had filed petitions of nomination as of this morning.

Meet On Reading Council

Local school and PTA officials will attend a meeting at 8 p.m. Friday at the SIU residence center in the former East St. Louis high school, in connection with formation of an area council of the International Reading Association. Dr. Artley, IRA president and Missouri University remedial reading and teaching clinic director, will speak on "Reading Skills Are Not Enough."

Plan For Annual Dinner

Plans were made here last night by Boy Scout commissioners for the annual council appreciation dinner March 12 and a fall commissioners' conference at Camp Sunnen. Unit district commissioners will meet tonight at Concordia Lutheran Church.

Young Demo Club Condemns Firing, 'Machinations'

The executive board of the Madison County Young Democratic Club, meeting here last night, passed a resolution condemning dismissal of employees in the sheriff's office or other offices "simply to achieve political harmony." The action was an apparent referral to discharge of two sheriff deputies Monday.

While its charter prevents outright primary endorsements, the board adopted a resolution commending the Press-Record for criticism of endorsements by the county Democratic Central Committee executive board, and praising the newspaper for "alertness in seeing through the machinations of elements in the Democratic party who do not represent the general opinion of Democrats in this county."

The discussion brought out

Granite City PRESS-RECORD

No New School Filings

No new filings or petitions were reported in the three local school districts this week. Incumbents have filed for re-election in Granite City and Venice, and the two Madison incumbents have petitions but have not filed. A third petition has been issued in Granite City.

The club's board also voted to write Sen. Douglas and Cong. Price urging opposition to construction of a post office on city property currently used as boys' baseball fields. The board concluded that it is unlikely for similar diamonds to be established in that area, and expressed the opinion that a new downtown post office would attract business to the downtown area. It was urged that funds and labor be donated in creating and operating the ball fields.

Marzuff Boy Is Able

To Use Injured Eye
Phillip Marzuff, 12, can see slightly this week but it is still too early to determine if his sight will be completely restored, the boy's mother said today.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Marzuff, 2524 Washington avenue, was injured Feb. 24 when a trash fire exploded and an unknown object flew into his left eye. Mrs. Marzuff said he can make out objects but his vision is hazy. She plans to take him to a St. Louis doctor tomorrow, if weather permits, for further study of his condition.

PTA Leadership Meeting
Postponed Until Monday
A PTA leadership training planning meeting has been postponed until Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the speech room of Granite City high school. It was announced today by Harry Ward, chairman.

Dr. Harold Kaler, superintendent of schools, M. A. Wittvrongel, adult education director, Earl Lee, assistant superintendent, will work with PTA leadership chairman, Harry Ward in planning for the course which is scheduled to start March 12th at 10 a.m.

MORE ABOUT Area Digs Out

Schools were operating despite higher than average pupil absences. The snow was reported in the Venice district had little trouble. Supt. John O. Pier reported that about 15 minutes behind schedule.

Madison Supt. Wensel Brown said attendance in the system was "poor" during large part to the inability to provide bus service for pupils in the Hend road area, where there has been much drifting of snow. Two teachers in both the Madison and Venice schools were unable to report to their classes due to the snow.

Special activities in the area Wednesday night were cancelled or postponed, and other school activities and Friday night were also called off.

Tow Services Busy
Garages and towing services, especially in the outlying areas, reported a flood of service calls from motorists stuck, stalled or stranded.

One Mitchell firm said it had had wrecker crews out for the past 18 hours and could have used "10 wreckers instead of the four we have available."

Motorists who braved slippery and snow-packed streets were apparently exercising extreme caution this morning. Neither the Madison county sheriff's office or the Illinois state police reported any serious accidents, although the state police said several reports of autos stalled on highway shoulders had been received.

The state police termed all highways in the area "snow-packed and extremely hazardous in spots."

Accidents In GC
Snow was blamed for several traffic accidents occurring in Granite City during the hour yesterday afternoon and evening. Two of the mishaps, in which minor injuries were reported, are listed in today's injury accident story.

One traffic mishap started at 1:35 p.m. and continued through 6:45 p.m.

In the first accident, a Yellow Taxicab, operated by Lloyd L. McKel, 37, of 3004 East 23rd street, and an auto driven by Joseph F. Stanton, 33, of 2280 Edin avenue, collided in the 1000 block of Edison avenue, where Stanton was making a right turn from an alley onto Edison avenue and the taxicab was traveling north on Edison avenue.

Boy Falls Against Car
David S. Lakin, Jr., 27, of 2551 Edison avenue, reported to police that as he was driving east in the 2800 block of West 20th street, a boy apparently fell against his auto and was thrown to the icy pavement.

Lakin said a group of boys was trying to "hop a ride on the rear of his car and a sled was pushed in front of the auto." As he was watching some of the boys through his rearview mirror, another boy fell to the pavement. He said the boy refused to be taken to the hospital.

Involved in a minor collision at 20th street and Madison avenue were autos driven by Clifford Hughes, 41, of St. Louis, who was going north on Madison avenue, and Leo Skotkowski, 54, of 1201 Madison avenue, who was traveling south. Police said Hughes was attempting a left turn. There was damage to the right rear of his auto and none to the other car.

Slides Through Stop Sign
A taxicab driven by Charles T. Kentner, 27, of 2018 Iowa street, traveling north on Edison avenue, skidded through the stop sign at 23rd street and collided with an eastbound auto driven by Maynard L. Stark, 16, of 2459 Adams street. Police said the cab skidded in front of Stark's auto. There was damage to the left front fender on the taxicab and to the front of Stark's auto.

Three cars were involved in an accident on Madison avenue at 23rd street early yesterday afternoon.

Police said two of the autos were stopped, while the third driver was unable to stop in time.

Operator of the third auto was listed as Robert C. Barton, 17, of 3406 N. Meade road, who police said struck the rear of the auto of William Bennett, 27, of Eldorado, Ill., knocking it into the auto of Louis Gansmann, 23, of Belleville.

Streets Being Opened
Granite City Supt. of Streets William Warfield said his department began fighting a battle against the snowfall early yesterday morning, and has two road graders operating continuously at the present time in an attempt to clear thoroughfares.

One of the graders, equipped to operate at night, began clearing traffic lanes at 2 a.m. today. Snow is being pulled away from the curbs of downtown streets, loaded on six dump trucks by two high-lifts, and hauled to the city lot on Madison avenue for dumping.

Warfield said 19th street and Delmar avenues have been cleared of snow, and that his crews are currently working to open Weddington avenue.

City graders also opened Fehling road, 31st St. Clair and Madison avenues for traffic this morning before the rush hour, but Warfield said it would be several days before his department could catch up.

One of the high-lifts used to clear the snow by the street department was donated by a local contractor, Warfield said.

A water main freeze and broke early this morning at 10th street and Washington avenue, Madison, flooding the intersection and adding to driving hazards. Madison street workers opened catch basins to take some of the water, and a water company crew is at work there today.

Members of the Madison street department reported at 6 a.m. yesterday to spread mixtures of cinders and calcium chloride at major intersections and school crossings, and a three-man crew remained on duty all last night making three tours of the city. State highway crews worked on the Madison-owned Chain of Rocks Bridge.

Estimating that the snowfall began in Venice at 1 a.m. yesterday, street workers reported an hour later and began spreading rock salt and cinders. Working throughout the early morning yesterday, they resumed their efforts today at intersections throughout the city. Later this morning, the street department used a grader to clear loose snow off the city-owned McKinley Bridge and then spread cinders and salt on the remaining snow on the bridge.

A collision related to the snowstorm occurred at 8:30 a.m. Wednesday when the auto of Lois Anton Villacco, Collinsville, collided with a Madison Iron and Metal Co. truck on Sixth street near State street. The car had turned right from State onto Sixth and the truck was entering the metal firm's lot.

Snow was falling at 7:15 a.m. yesterday when northbound autos of James P. Sevier, 39, of Pittfield, Ill., and Ervin Lehr, 25, of Macomb, Ill., collided on Madison avenue at Tenth street, Madison, as Sevier failed to stop sign. There was damage to the front of Lehr's car and the rear bumper and door of the other auto.

Paul Thors, 5009 Lewis avenue, and Carl Thomas, Belleville, were drivers of cars involved in a mishap on the Venice approach of the McKinley Bridge at 3:27 p.m. Wednesday. There was damage to the front end and tire of Thors' car and to a guard rail which it struck.

The right rear fender of the eastbound car of Melvin Kravnick, Elsie Rodell, Trill Watson and Donald Kravnick Brown served as advisor for the training event, first of three to be held in March.

Calhoun street, at Logan street and Line alley, Venice.

Plant Absenteeism Up
A spot check with local industries generally brought reports of higher than usual absenteeism. A Granite City Steel Co. spokesman said the absentee rate was "about twice as many as usual," while at American Steel Foundries absenteeism was reported to be only 1.6 above normal, although many workers were late in arriving at their jobs, and operations were delayed accordingly. R. O. Tibbals, works manager, said.

At A. O. Smith Corp., this morning, absenteeism of first shift workers was reported at 2.5, higher than 10%. There was some tardiness by shift workers, but most started to work from their homes earlier, according to Melvin Dunklau of the firm's personnel office.

Out-Of-Town Employees
Some firms in the area stayed overnight in the homes of friends and relatives rather than face the ordeal of driving home through traffic and back to work this morning in the still deeper snow.

Madison Man Robbed Of $69 By Pair

Two men whom he met in a St. Louis tavern early Wednesday morning robbed him of $69 and pushed him from an automobile on Illinois Route 3 south of East St. Louis, Ray J. Arnett, 30, of 1422 Madison avenue, Madison, reported to St. Clair county deputy sheriffs.

Arnett said his assailants, one about 25, the other about 21, demanded his money after the trio had driven to near East St. Louis on the pretext of visiting another bar.

Careless Driving Arrest

A charge of careless driving—operating a motor vehicle too fast for road conditions—was placed against James E. Champlott, 29, of 805 Kirkpatrick Homes, who was arrested at Pontoon road and railroad tracks yesterday afternoon by Granite City police. He posted his driver's license as bond.

25 Den Mothers Trained

Twenty-five den mothers from seven Quad-City cub packs were trained Tuesday at the Eagles hall by Mesdames Marge Vernick, Elsie Rodell, Trill Watson and Donald Kravnick Brown served as advisor for the training event, first of three to be held in March.

FORMER RESIDENT IS PRE-LENTEN BRIDE

From Alexandria, Va., comes word this week of the recent marriage of a former Granite Cityan, Miss Barbara Joan O'Neil, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. O'Neil, who resided here for many years, and Richard Magruder Hartsock of Chevy Chase, Maryland.

The ceremony took place Saturday at Saint Rita's Catholic Church.

Mrs. R. C. Weissenborn was her sister's matron of honor, and Patricia O'Neil and Sheryl Weissenborn, nieces of the bride, served as junior attendants with Colleen Marie Handlon, another niece, flower girl.

Richard Gibbs was best man, and Dr. Frederick Hartsock, the bridegroom's brother, and R. C. Weissenborn were ushers.

After a honeymoon in Nassau the newlyweds will reside at 5328 Sheril avenue, Chevy Chase.

The bride, who was born and reared in Granite City, was graduated from the local high school and served as first attendant to the May Queen in 1955. Before her marriage she attended evening classes at American University and was employed as a personnel secretary in the Inspector General's office, Washington, D.C.

Mr. Hartsock, a Mr. Hartsock, is an attorney for the U.S. Army Transportation Division. He is also a reserve major in the Marine Corps.

TROOP HOLDS MID-WINTER WIENER ROAST AT PARK

The pioneers were topped yesterday by a group of Granite City girls. On the worst day of this winter and the worst in a number of years, Girl Scouts of Troop 133 braved icy winds, slippery streets and sidewalks and falling snow to hike to Wilson Park.

Purpose of the hike was to earn one of 11 parts of a second-class merit badge. The girls not only hiked from Seibold's bakery, but invited three former troop members to go along with them. On Wednesday morning the troop toured the bakery and received cookies and inscribed cupcakes. After they hiked to Wilson Park, a bonfire was built, hot dogs were roasted and hot chocolate was prepared.

Leaders of the "expedition" were Mrs. Helen York and Mrs. Vey Bagl, while the guests were Betty Uhls, Carol Reiter and Cynthia Settlemyer. Troop members participating were Carmen Dickerman, Pat Decker, Barbara Zimmer, Sharon York, Karen Bagl, Linda Hayes and Nancy Brooks.

BETA GAMMA SORORITY

Rapid Growth By Granite City Steel In Past Decade To Continue

As the Quad-Cities' largest industry and employer, Granite City Steel Co. occupies a key position in this community. Its accomplishments and aspirations are of interest to all local residents, whether or not they are directly affected. For this reason, the firm's post-war breakthrough to a position of competitive strength is of great significance.

In growing three times faster than the steel industry average and boosting its capacity by almost 10% a year for the past decade, Granite City Steel has increased production from 532,000 to 1,308,000 tons, shipments from 464,000 to 1,126,000 tons, sales from $46,000,000 to $164,000,000, working capital from $6,000,000 to $37,000,000 and earnings from $3,000,000 to $16,000,000.

Stockholders have increased from 2200 to 10,736, the plant area from 230 to 550 acres and employees from 3330 to an average of 5139 last year. A clear picture of the value of the firm's expansion to the Quad-Cities is shown by the increase in average annual earnings from $3780 in 1950 to $7800 last year, more than twice as much. Wage, salary and other employee benefits soared from $12,000,000 to $40,000,000 during the period.

The growth pattern also is illustrated by Granite City Steel's advance from 19th to 16th in size among the major steel plants. Now larger than 68 of the nation's 84 steel producers, the local company has become one of the United States' 300 largest industrial corporations.

The first 72 years of Granite City Steel's history were important, but the last 10 have seen the most change. "This growth would not have taken place if the Tri-City area, where Granite City Steel employees live, had not itself been thriving and vigorous, and had we not expected it to continue to be progressive," Board Chairman and President Nicholas P. Veeder comments.

Announcing plans for continued expansion, he says, "There seems to be every reason for expecting that the requirements of our market area will increase steadily in the coming decade."

This is heartening news for every Quad-Citizen, for, as Veeder says, "The futures of the community and the company are tied together."

In the history of office-holders few have ever tried to save their country by resigning.

March Is Winter's Turning Point

With rushing winds and gloomy skies
The dark and shadowy Winter
Far-off, unseen, Spring faintly cries,
Bidding her earliest child arise;
March!

March is a turning-point month, when Winter begins to give way to warmer weather and the first signs of Spring appear. In early colonial days, the year began in March. The name of the month comes from the name Mars, which in ancient Italian meaning, was the name of the God of War.

March, of course, used to be the month of Inauguration Day, and on March 4, for many years, Presidents were inaugurated. However, with the adoption of the 20th Amendment in 1933, inaugurations have been held in January.

The cotton gin was patented by Eli Whitney, of Massachusetts, on March 14, 1894.

The U. S. Military Academy, at West Point, N. Y., was founded by Act of Congress on March 16, 1802, and St. Patrick's Day is celebrated on March 17, dating from the death of the patron saint of Ireland on March 17, 493.

The month is the birthday anniversary of several Presidents of the United States, among them being Grover Cleveland, the only man to serve two separate terms of office as President of the United States. Cleveland was born in Caldwell, New Jersey, on March 8, 1837.

March contains many other interesting historical days, March 19 being the birthday of William Jennings Bryan, and March 22 of President John Tyler, the tenth President of the United States. March 30 is known as Seward Day in Alaska, the anniversary of the day, in 1868, when Russia ceded Alaska to the United States for $7,200,000.

The only way to protect yourself against the fast talker is calm thinking and slow action.

Illinois Leading State In Rural Overseas Aid Program

While statements are conducting foreign affairs at the diplomatic level, farmers and churchgoers in this area have been endeavoring the United States to people in far lands by easing poverty and hunger throughout the world. During 1959, Illinois residents provided more food through Crop, the Christian Rural Overseas Program, than any other state.

Thirty carloads of corn were shipped from Illinois.

Co-chairmen are James Conaway, 2520 Sheridan avenue, Granite City, and Thomas Stewart, Centuria. They will select about 14 acts from tryouts held last week.

Some Illinois counties collected funds to send soybeans to Austria and pigs to Venezuela and Haiti. The Illinois Council of Churches sponsored the sending of 50,000 donated blankets to disaster parts of the world.

Want and misery are more prevalent in the world than many people would like to believe. Residents of this area and state are doing much to help others meet basic living needs.

Planning for the future is the only way to improve the future.

Park District Serving All Areas With Varied Program

Ordering of additional neighborhood playground equipment for installation this spring is an indication that the Granite City park district is continuing its policy of providing the public with an extensive variety of services.

Under the guidance of the board, Supl. O. H. Williams and Recreation Director Harold Brown, a year-round recreation program attracting thousands of youngsters and adults as participants and spectators has been developed. In addition to athletics, the program now covers a wide variety of interests, hobbies and other activities.

Best part of the program expansion started after the extension of the park district's boundaries is that many of the events have been added without substantial use of tax funds. There is only one major park in the district, but the board is showing that park-sponsored services can be made available to residents of every section of the district.

You cannot expect success if it depends upon the failure of others.

32 Candidates In Illinois

Combining Brains With Beauty

No less than 32—count them—32 Illinois women are entered in the April primary election as candidates for Congress, the state legislature and party delegate and alternate delegate positions.

The fair sex is still fair and pleasing to the eye, but it also is making itself known for brainpower and debating ability. If the women have their way — and they would be ungenerously enough to deny them? — they will win six Congressional seats, one state senator post, eight state representative positions and 17 national nominating convention posts.

It has been left to a legislator from our own district, Paul Simon, to figure out an effective way to uphold the rights of men and reduce the ranks of female legislators. In marrying Rep. Simon this spring, Rep. Jeanne Hurley of Wilmette will move here and give up her position in the general assembly.

TELEPHONE TALK

by PAUL ROTH, Mgr., Granite City, Ill.

NEW TELEPHONE BILLS

Some of you have already received a new style telephone bill this month that reflects the modern age of mechanization. By March 15, everyone in the Quad-Cities will have received the new style bill. We have changed to this method of billing as it will mean a faster, more efficient billing service to all our telephone customers. If you pay your bill by mail, please return the enclosed punched card with your payment. If you pay in the office, please bring both the punched card and your bill. Incidentally, it will help us on a great deal if the punched card is not stapled or folded.

BIGGEST STORY OF ALL

The other day I saw a couple of school kids dart into Madison avenue, unaware of an approaching telephone truck. But the driver spotted them at once. He slowed to a stop and waited until the youngsters crossed the street. Then he went on his way.

I got to thinking about this incident later. What I had seen was a quiet drama of safe driving that would never make front-page headlines the way major accidents do.

Yet here was the biggest story of all—the kids who aren't hurt crossing our streets in the Quad-Cities, the accidents that don't happen... because good safety habits prevent them from happening.

Driving safely is everyone's duty. But for telephone men it is more than a duty. It's a way of life. It is part of that special sense of responsibility that goes with telephone work. We call it the Spirit of Service.

FIND IT FAST IN THE YELLOW PAGES

"I wonder where to find..." I bet you've heard that statement many times by folks looking for a particular product or service. You've probably said it yourself. There's really no need to wonder though. Not when you can refer to the Yellow Pages. It's the Quad-Cities' most complete shopping guide.

Harold Luckey, Larry Marshall and Bill Schaeffer, three of our Yellow Page men are currently working in the Quad-City area contacting local businessmen about their Yellow Page advertising needs. No matter how small or large your business, people will find your products or service fast in the Yellow Pages.

Companionship, Sharing Of Home Decisions Solidify Marriages

In studying the high divorce rate and trying to determine the reasons for it, many overlook a positive approach to the problem. A survey by the Minnesota Family Study Center "accentuates the positive" and provides interesting food for thought.

The conclusion reached on why some marriages are happy included five major reasons: the husband and wife of today are more frequently partners in the realm of earning and spending the family income; authority in decision-making is more likely to be shared in all phases of life, including recreation, choice of friends and child discipline; there is a less pronounced division of labor within the home; integration of recreation for both sexes has increased the possibilities of companionship in play; and trends involving couples have their counterpart in the parent-child relationship, where increasing companionship and sharing of authority have made parents and children closer friends than their predecessors.

Some authorities say that most marriages that last do so mainly because of the determination of both partners to make them happy and lasting. When such determination is augmented by greater "togetherness" in both thought and deed, the prospects of marital happiness are bright.

Re-enlistments Sought By Navy Recruiters

Due to an early year lag in naval re-enlistments, recruiters in this area are making an increased effort to get ex-Navy men to sign up. Chief Albert Burnett, recruiter in charge of the Granite City office announced today.

Burnett pointed out that many ex-Navy men can re-enlist with the same rate they had when they left and those who have been out less than 90 days will receive a large cash bonus and benefits for coming back.

Fast-Growing Glenview Features Aluminum Homes

The fast-growing Glenview subdivision, which lies in a tract of over 125 acres east of Oak Avenue, now features all-new aluminum homes, available with 1 1/2 baths, basements and garages, according to the developer, Cooper Homes, Inc., and subsidiaries.

Since its origin in 1955, the subdivision has attracted more than 500 families including many from the Quad-City area. However, a steady flow of new families moving to Granite City from across the Mississippi River in St. Louis and St. Louis County has accounted for approximately 70% of Glenview's growth.

With the population growth have come the necessary facilities of any community. A new bank, shopping center, service stations, super markets and a bowling alley are in the immediate vicinity.

New schools and churches are appearing. The new Wilson avenue grade school is in the center of the subdivision and nearby are the Coolidge junior high school and senior high school.

Two churches, the modern-designed Lutheran Church and the all-Bible Evangelical and Reformed Church, were built at the subdivision.

In addition, plans are being made for the construction of Assembly of God and Catholic churches at Glenview.

In addition to its newest features, the all-aluminum home, the subdivision is complete with sewers, concrete streets, sidewalks and landscaped lots.

Medical Insurance Plan For Persons 65, Older

A low-cost insurance program designed to meet surgical and hospital medical expenses of all persons 65 years of age or older has been announced by the Illinois State Medical Society.

The program has been prepared on instructions from the society's House of Delegates and will be underwritten by the Blue Shield Plan of the Illinois Medical Service, Dr. Joseph T. O'Neill of Ottawa, president of the medical society, said.

"The plan has been developed to make it possible for the older person who needs hospitalization for surgical or medical care to have practical, realistic insurance," he said.

"The fact that people can get these benefits over again either for the same or a different condition is an outstanding feature of this program. Pre-existing conditions also are covered after 180 days of membership."

"Other professional services for which a schedule of allowances is in a 90-day period a maximum benefit of $200 according to a schedule of surgical allowances," Dr. O'Neill said. He added, "The plan also provides 30 days of in-hospital medical care benefits per hospital admission, including an allowance of $5 for each of the first five daily visits and $3 for each of the next 25 daily visits. Then, after the patient has been out of the hospital for 90 days and is readmitted, he may receive 30 days of in-hospital medical care benefits again."

A low-cost insurance program designed to meet surgical and hospital medical expenses of all persons 65 years of age or older has been announced by the Illinois State Medical Society.

The program has been prepared on instructions from the society's House of Delegates and will be underwritten by the Blue Shield Plan of the Illinois Medical Service, Dr. Joseph T. O'Neill of Ottawa, president of the medical society, said.

"The plan has been developed to make it possible for the older person who needs hospitalization for surgical or medical care to have practical, realistic insurance," he said.

Visit Behind Iron Curtain Informative, Reasonably Safe

(Last of a series of three Press-Record articles on European Travel)

World events being what they are, no one can guarantee that American travelers will be safe behind the Iron Curtain.

History indicates that the United States will not go to war over the lives of one or two of its citizens if they are jailed. Yet, many Americans are including Russia, East Germany and other Communist-controlled lands in their foreign journeys.

As a practical matter, there is little chance of difficulty unless the traveler grossly violates "rules of the game." Very few rules apply to a brief visit to East Berlin, the sad remains of the once-lively governmental and historical section of the former German capital.

Some tourists have encountered difficulty in taking pictures on the "wrong" side of the Brandenburg Gate, dividing line between east and west along Unter den Linden, but only two restrictions were outlined to us — do not photograph persons in military uniforms or any East German police credentials checkpoints.

Abiding by these rules, we were able to obtain color slides of almost unlimited activities and scenes in the Red sector of the city; we even have a picture of two uniformed policemen passing by on a motorcycle in the background as we photographed an exhibit.

Sharp East-West contrast. Most fortunate aspect of the pictures obtained in Berlin is that they accurately reflect the sharp contrast between the free world and Communist zones. In busy, thriving West Berlin — western nations' showplace set in the midst of hundreds of miles of Red territory — the sidewalks were thronged with shoppers, streets were jammed and parking places were at a premium.

In East Berlin, now composed of only 1,100,000 people to West Berlin's 2,200,000, it almost seemed like a Sunday or holiday, apart from vital, alive Western Europe.

Buffeted by wars, both hot and cold, and torn by political and social unrest, Europe retains the splendor typified by its magnificent cathedrals and palaces, picture-book villages, legendary castles in wooded settings, mountain-top chalets, vineyards and medieval towns through which flow sparkling rivers steeped in history.

Old And New Combined. Europe affords skiing, swimming and countless other pastimes associated with vacations. But it also offers a two-fold view available nowhere else — an acquaintance with the new Europe that has evolved since world war II and a link with the past that gives insight into the centuries-old culture of the western civilization.

Theatres, concerts, exhibitions and gay social events await the traveler venturesome enough to cross the Atlantic. The pastwork quilt of Europe connects countries fitted closely together like states of the union, but magically different in language, history, custom and tradition.

Transportation is more convenient, fast and comfortable than ever before. Those who have crossed on ocean liners say the service and fun-filled days added much to their trips. Jet planes go from New York to Paris non-stop in six and a half hours, affording spacious seats, berths and refreshment lounges. Gourmet will find the food enroute to Europe as excellent as the cuisine encountered on the continent, where dining is both an art and a genuine pleasure.

Variety Of Tours. Variety is also a hallmark of European travel. Tours offered in a single issue of an American newspaper this month included "youth hospitality" for high school students; "campus college" for undergraduates; "holiday" in Europe for teachers and alumni; "bachelor party tours" for students and other single persons; five tax-free plans to "see Europe from a new car," including lease, straight purchase, purchase-lease and home return; a painting tour; Mediterranean and Olympic cruises; escorted coach tours; 10 to 84-day tours; "this summer live in Paris or Florence" for a full month; religious pilgrimages; and "the Europe most tourists miss."

The answer to "Why go to Europe?" can be understood best by someone who has been there but by some who have not, although there is much to capture the imagination in the literature prepared by travel firms, airlines and European travel commissions and tourist offices.

With the improvements that have been made in transportation and European travel facilities, and the lower cost, the question might better be stated as "Why not?"

WHEREAS, good health is the most precious possession of any person—child or adult, and is vital to our personal and community health, and

WHEREAS, the nurses themselves, through their professional association, seek to promote good nursing care through maintaining high and exacting standards of practice, upgrading nursing education and improving nurse employment conditions, and

WHEREAS, the Illinois Nurses' Association believes that the public understanding of the nursing profession will help the public obtain good nursing care.

NOW, THEREFORE, We, the Mayors of the Quad-Cities, do hereby proclaim the week of March 6 through 12, 1960, as Quad-City Nurses Week, and urge that all citizens and all community organizations join in the observance.

Approximately 900 Brownies will meet with their leaders Saturday morning at the Washington Theatre to kick-off the semi-annual Girl Scout cookie sale. The Girl Scout Council Area 10.

The girls will be entertained with a free movie by theatre management and will receive their final sales instructions and cookie order books.

Each girl, said, each Brownie will have information on the three types of cookies being sold available for prospective customers. The girls will be selling vanilla and chocolate cremes, savannahs and minis.

The sale campaign will begin Saturday morning at the Washington Theatre, continuing until next Saturday. All orders will be turned in to the council office.

Girl Scout spokesmen said the cookies will be received on March 26, and that Brownies will be able to place orders. Customers who have ordered cookies pay for them upon delivery, not when they are ordered.

From the price of each box of cookies — 40 cents — each troop leader will receive 10 cents. The money is used to re-register the Girl Scouts, in this case Brownies, with the national Girl Scout organization. The money also can be used for the troop program or the purchase of troop equipment.

Surplus profits from the sale this year have been authorized for application to the further development of the Girl Scout center at Lakota near Glen Carbon. The semi-annual sale is being conducted to raise money when Girl Scouts observe Girl Scout Week.

About This Question

"I bought 'bargain-basement' auto insurance. The first time I had an accident, my policy was canceled. Can the Lueders Agency insure me with a company that shows a bit more consideration for the insured?"

George Washington published his famous Farewell Address in the American Daily Advertiser of Philadelphia in September of 1796.
